There's no better care in this world and beyond, than a mother's love. From everything that I've come across in life, this is closest to mother's love. In fact, it is as caring as a mother's heart is for her babies. Kidz Organic is indeed magically loving.

Khadi has not just been a fabric, but a way of life. It helps preserve nature and is the original fabric that comes with the promise of sustainability and environment-friendliness. Kidz Organic imbibes all these properties and passes it on, literally to the next generation.

You want nothing less than the best for your new-born baby. We are extremely happy and delighted to use it for our new-born baby Aradhya. The clothes are soft and comfortable and look very cute on her. We'll happily recommend it to parents of all babies around.

– Brains behind Kidz Organic –

Dr. Meghshyam Gurjar
Director

An academician with a stellar career, Dr. Gurjar worked at the reputed Banasthali Vidyapith, Rajasthan for 32 years. He has held many distinguished positions over the years including Director, MGM Khadi and Paithani Research Center. His experience in Khadi and passion to provide sustainable fabric to people of India led him to start Kidz Organic which focuses on Handloom fabric for kids. His expertise in Material exploration, Handloom weaving and Product design are the reason behind the quality products at Kidz Organic.

An engineer by qualification and an innovator by passion, Ms. Prajakta Patil is the heart and brain behind Kidz Organic.

In 2021, she started off as a merchandiser for Khadi fabric with MGM Khadi and Paithani Research Center, Aurangabad.

Her in-depth knowledge about Khadi as a fabric and her hands-on approach to innovating its usage drives this unique venture.
